ROD MILLEN'S PRIVATE RANCH IN HAHEI, NEW ZEALAND WILL BE THE STAGE FOR THE 2012 LEADFOOT FESTIVAL.

The Leadfoot Festival will burst to life next March with an international gathering of distinguished drivers and rarely seen race cars that span decades of racing history by returning them to the race track to compete as they once did. The collection of more than 80 historic vehicles will assemble in the race paddock and be complemented by a broad range of motorsports activities and personalities.

The Leadfoot Festival is a unique weekend bringing together a mix of classic cars, vintage motorcycles and motorsport legends. Limited tickets will be offered to the general public with an invitation to Rod Millen's private grounds at Leadfoot Ranch. The 140 acre, ocean-front estate features a mile long driveway that winds through the property designed to be the perfect hill climb. Guests will be given one of a kind experiences featuring unparalleled access to the drivers, pits and racecars. The event is a true celebration of motorsports and all things automotive.

The selection of world-class machinery on Leadfoot Ranch will include a spectacular array of the world's finest competition cars and motorcycles. From classic formula and road racecars to off road machines and motorcycles, the Leadfoot Festival attracts drivers, riders and race vehicles reminiscent of many eras in an enthusiastic display of speed, style, sound, smell and color.

The Leadfoot Festival pays respect to the most significant and outstanding two and four wheel race vehicles and distinguished drivers. Rod Millen personally hand selects championship racers from around the world along with their illustrious racing machines to receive the coveted invitation to participate in the Leadfoot Festival. A collection of static celebrated vintage cars and bikes will line areas of the paddocks throughout the weekend.

Tickets are limited and will only be sold online through Ticketek. No gate sales.
